31 December Tues. 2.45pm £40.00 NEW	BRIGHTON PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA at THE DOME, BRIGHTON. NEW YEAR'S EVE VIENNESE GALA. Stephen Bell Conductor. Ailish Tynan Soprano. Stephen Bell makes a welcome return to Brighton as guest conductor for our annual Viennese Gala, joined by the Irish soprano Ailish Tynan who will perform a selection of delightful songs and arias from operettas and musicals written in the 19th century and beyond. Ailish won the Rosenblatt Recital Prize at the BBC Cardiff Singer of the World competition in 2003, has appeared at both the first and last night of the BBC Proms, and enjoys a thriving international career as an opera singer, recitalist and recording artist. Celebrating the New Year is inextricably linked to the fabulous melodies of the Strauss family. Their family name has become synonymous with the wonderful tunes which dominated the musical life of Vienna in the late 19th century. For this concert Stephen has hand-picked some favourites from the waltz kings of Vienna and will also introduce you to some not so well known, but equally brilliant compositions. This is always one of our most popular concerts of the season, and has become part of the cultural calendar of the city. 8 January Wednesday £46.00 NEW A second date for this very popular trip.	TUTANKHAMUN: TREASURES OF THE GOLDEN PHAROAH AT THE SAATCHI GALLERY. Produced by the Egyptian Ministry of Antiquities and IMG, and presented in London by Viking Cruises, the TUTANKHAMUN: Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh world tour features more than 150 original artefacts from Tutankhamun's tomb, with 60 on their first journey outside Egypt. Visitors can discover the legend of the golden king before the historic treasures return to Cairo to be permanently housed with Tutankhamun's full collection at the new Grand Egyptian Museum. The legend of Tutankhamun captured imaginations globally when, in 1922 his tomb was unearthed by British explorer Howard Carter and financier Lord Carnarvon. An instant worldwide sensation, public fascination surrounding the boy king - and the only Ancient Egyptian royal tomb ever found intact - has continued for decades. "To celebrate the 100th year anniversary of the discovery of Tutankhamun's tomb, Egypt is sending 150 masterpieces to tour all over the world. TUTANKHAMUN: Treasures of the Golden Pharaoh explores the meaning of the items in the royal tomb and the dual storyline of its discovery against all odds. The pharaohs that succeeded Tutankhamun nearly managed to erase him from the history books. Had Howard Carter not persisted in his quest, the boy king's legacy and treasures could have been forever lost to the sands of Egypt. The ancient Egyptians believed that death was also a rebirth. Through nine immersive galleries that incorporate digital content, contextual material, audio and custom soundscapes, visitors will follow Tutankhamun's passage into everlasting life, discovering how his funerary objects were used on the perilous journey. As they explore his life, visitors will become part of perpetuating the Pharaoh's immortality: to speak his name is to make him live.

MUSEUM OF LONDON DOCKLANDS No 1 WAREHOUSE. A rare survival of what was once the world's largest dock complex. The museum building was originally No. 1 Warehouse of the West India Docks. Opened in 1802, the West India Docks were London's first enclosed dock system, built away from the open river on the Isle of Dogs. This gallery looks at how London's historic docks and warehouses operated at the height of their success. This fascinating museum tells the story of London's time as the world's greatest trading city via a range of exhibitions and artefacts. Discover the history of the area as a port from Roman times until the closure of the Central Docks in the 1970s. The museum is located next to Canary Wharf, home to one of London's busiest business districts during the week, but also home to a wide range of shops, bars and restaurants. You will have time to explore this amazing museum, you can wander into Canary Wharf if you wish. There is a café on site at the museum.

GOD OF CARNAGE AT THE YVONNE ARNAUD THEATRE, GUILDFORD. Downton Abbey favourite ELIZABETH MCGOVERN stars in this Olivier and Tony award-winning play. This ruthlessly comic study of middle class parenting by the author of Art, is one of the most successful plays ever in the history of the West End. When eleven-year-old Ferdinand hits eleven-year-old Bruno with a stick in a playground punch-up and knocks out two of his teeth, the combatants' enlightened parents decide to meet to talk things over civilly. But once the niceties are done with and the drink starts flowing, it is the parents who turn into spoiled brats.

Time for lunch prior to performance. Depart Heathfield 9.20, Ringmer 9.35, Uckfield 9.50, Maresfield 10.00, Forest Row 10.25, War Memorial Bus Stop 10.35, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 10.40, Felbridge 10.45. Home 6.45pm

19 January Sun. 2.45pm £40.00 NEW	BRIGHTON PHILHARMONIC BRASS. Tylman Susato - Five Renaissance Dances (from The Danserye) Arr. John Iveson. Giovanni Gabrieli - Three Sonatas. Jan Koetsier - Symphony for Brass Op.80. William Byrd - Earl of Oxford March. Henry Purcell - Trumpet Tune and Air. Chris Hazell - Four Brass Cats – Kraken, Black Sam, Borage, Mr Jums. Ray Premru - Divertimento for Ten Brass (5 movements) Our first concert of the New Year showcases the Brighton Philharmonic Brass, which is rarely given top billing in one of the orchestra's Brighton Dome concerts. We start with two highly significant Renaissance composers, the Flemish Tylman Susato and his brilliant dances of 1551, arranged by the trombonist John Iveson, and then three sonatas for brass choirs by the Italian composer Giovanni Gabrieli, one of the most influential musicians of his time. The popular Symphony for Brass by the Dutch composer Jan Koetsier was written in 1979 and has become a staple of the brass ensemble repertoire. We visit the Baroque period with music from English composers William Byrd and Henry Purcell, whose Trumpet Tune and Air is a wedding staple, and then fast forward to the 20th century when the English composer and arranger Chris Hazell wrote his jazzy, light-hearted Brass Cats suite loosely based on the cats (all former strays) who shared his home at the time. We close with five movements of the entertaining Divertimento written in 1976 by American composer Ray Premru, Principal Bass Trombone at the Philharmonia Orchestra for 30 years. Depart Felbridge 12.30, Old Library 12.35, Barclays Bank, High Street 12.40, Forest Row 12.45, Maresfield 1.00, Uckfield 1.10, Halland 1.20. Ringmer 1.30. NO HEATHFIELD PICK UP. Home 6.00pm. 29 January Wed. 2.30pm £60.00 NEW	MY COUSIN RACHEL AT CHICHESTER FESTIVAL THEATRE. Murderess, seducer, thief, enchantress - or merely a woman intent on survival? Alluring, exotic and unconventional, Countess Rachel Sangalietti travels from Florence to the Ashley Estate in Cornwall, home of her recently deceased husband. Her presence in the house arouses dark suspicions and uncontrollable desires, not least in young Philip, cousin and heir to the Ashley home. Feverish passion battles reason in this classic Gothic romance set in the wild landscape of the rock-ribbed Cornish coast. HELEN GEORGE plays the deliciously enigmatic Rachel. Known for her role as Trixie Franklin in eight series of Call the Midwife, her recent stage credits include After Miss Julie and Love In Idleness. Anthony Banks was Associate Director at the National Theatre from 2004 - 2014. His many directing credits include The Girl on the Train, Strangers on a Train, Twilight Song, Gaslight and After Miss Julie.  Time for lunch prior to performance. 6 February Thur. 2.30pm £51.00 NEW	DIAL M FOR MURDER AT THE YVONNE ARNAUD THEATRE, GUILDFORD. THE GENRE-DEFINING THRILLER FOR ALL TIME. Can you ever get away with the perfect crime? A brand-new production of the blueprint for the modern thriller, Dial M for Murder is back. TV and Stage favourite, TOM CHAMBERS, (Top Hat, Strictly Come Dancing) stars as the charismatic and manipulative Tony Wendice, a jaded ex-tennis pro who has given it all up for his wife Margot. When he discovers she has been unfaithful his mind turns to revenge and the pursuit of the 'perfect crime'. Made famous by Alfred Hitchcock's world-renowned film of 1950, the iconic Dial M for Murder will leave you spellbound as Tony becomes more tangled in the web of his own making. Also featuring Christopher Harper (Coronation Street), this ultimate masterclass in suspense is guaranteed to entwine you with its spine-chilling twists and turns.
