23 February Sun. 3.00pm £50.00 Separate cheque please.	LONDON PHILHARMONIC ORCHESTRA – NEW WORLD SYMPHONY at Congress Theatre, Eastbourne. Chevalier de Saint-Georges Symphony No. 2 (11'). Mozart Concerto for Flute and Harp (29'). Dvořák Symphony No. 9 (From the New World) (40'). Artists: Matthew Lynch, Conductor*, Juliette Bausor, Flute, Alexander Boldachev, Harp. The movie Chevalier popularised the incredible life story of Joseph Bologne, Chevalier de Saint-Georges, but his music is even more exciting, and today it's just the start of an adventure that begins in 18th-century Paris and ends with the glorious melodies of Dvořák's 'New World' Symphony. It's popular for a reason, but for pure elegance and enchantment it's hard to top Mozart's Concerto for Flute and Harp, performed by the LPO Principal Flute Juliette Bausor plus the incredible Alexander Boldachev – a harpist with the charisma of a rock star. LPO 2024/25 Fellow Conductor Matthew Lynch completes a dream team: this should be magical. 5 March Wednesday £48.00 EH members £35.50	DOWN HOUSE (EH) AND RAF BIGGIN HILL MEMORIAL MUSEUM AND CHAPEL. With a unique place in the history of science and evolution, Down House was Charles Darwin's family home – and today it is a site of outstanding international significance. Step into the very rooms where Charles Darwin worked and lived, including the study where he wrote On the Origin of Species, and trace his story with a fascinating exhibition about his life and work. The house is surrounded by beautiful gardens that acted as Darwin's 'living laboratory' - see recreated experiments and discover how his observations helped him develop his groundbreaking theories. We have time to explore and get lunch before we move on to RAF Biggin Hill, a small museum that tells the story of RAF Biggin Hill through the personal experiences of those who served there, and the community who supported them. The museum journey begins over 100 years ago when RAF Biggin Hill was just farmland. One of Britain's oldest aerodromes, RAF Biggin Hill is still internationally recognised as Sir Winston Churchill's 'strongest link'. The museum is situated on the same site as St George's RAF Chapel of Remembrance, built in 1951 to preserve the legacy of those who served and died at Biggin Hill during the Second World War. The museum safeguards the future of this important building. Refreshments available at the Nightingale Café. Adam Hickox, Conductor. Hyeyoon Park, Violin. Music doesn't get much more beautiful than Beethoven's radiant Violin Concerto: a sunlit, soaring masterpiece in which the soloist almost seems to take flight. There's certainly nothing earthbound about our soloist – the award-winning Korean violinist Hyeyoon Park has been described as 'a marvel'. Her performance is the big, warm heart of a concert that opens with Schumann's swashbuckling overture and ends with Brahms's last symphony – tragedy, tenderness and defiance, told straight from the heart. New Year's Eve, 1959. Decades after answering the call, two women separated by the war, meet again as the rain hammers down on the windows of The Spitfire pub. As we hear their story, we're transported back to a time when female pioneers defied expectations and soared through the skies. Spitfire Girls is inspired by the extraordinary true stories of the women who dared to fly during WWII and the incredible bond that tied them together. Its ten, movable steel gates protect 125 square kilometres of central London from tidal-surge flooding. The Thames Barrier Information Centre is a small exhibition, where you can learn how the Thames Barrier was designed, built and works. There is a working model of the Thames Barrier, video on the construction, virtual technical tour film plus other films and displays about flooding and the environment. Our guides will cover topics including, the history of the river and the risk of flooding in London, the environment and wildlife of the Thames. Our visit coincides with a Test Closure of the Barrier (subject to operational conditions). The tour takes about 90 minutes. There are no refreshment facilities at the barrier so please bring a flask. After our tour we go to O2 where there will be free time for lunch (there are plenty of places to eat). PLAYHOUSE CREATURES AT YVONNE ARNAUD THEATRE, GUILDFORD. I'm an actress. They've never had one of those before. I'm a novelty. It's the swinging (16)60s, and 'the merry monarch' Charles II is on the throne. After violent civil war, England's theatres have finally reopened and, for the first time, women are allowed to perform in public. In the West End, Grande Dame Mrs Betterton (Anna Chancellor) rules the roost. But there's a new face in town: an orange-seller with dreams of stardom. From dressing-room camaraderie to bitter rivalry, April De Angelis' gloriously exuberant, bawdily funny and deeply poignant play celebrates five women grabbing this newfound freedom and making their way in an unfamiliar world. But at what price?
Time for lunch prior to performance. Depart Heathfield 9.30, Uckfield 9.50, Maresfield 10.00, Forest Row 10.25, War Memorial Bus Stop 10.35, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 10.40, Felbridge 10.45. Home 6.45pm

30 April Wednesday £76.00	THE GREAT STINK WITH A BLUE BADGE GUIDE. The day includes a top-notch Blue Badge Tour Guide, a Thames Cruise, the tour at Crossness plus morning coffee and a cup of tea at the end of the afternoon. Two thousand years ago the Romans enjoyed indoor plumbing but until a couple of hundred years ago Londoners were still emptying their chamber pots out of the window. In 1858 the long hot summer turned into The Great Stink with the Thames little more than an open sewer. Something had to be done. We begin in central London tracking London's lost rivers, cruise the Thames to Greenwich and drive across the old Thames marshes to the extraordinary Cathedral of Sewage built to house the Crossness Engines. Bazalgette stopped London's waste running into the Thames by building massive intercepting sewers beneath new Embankments created by pushing back the mighty Thames behind stone walls. On Bazalgette's Victoria Embankment, we board a Thames Pleasure Cruiser to Greenwich. From Greenwich the coach whisks us further east past Woolwich to the Thames Marshes and the Cathedral of Sewage. Discover some of Britain's most spectacular ornamental Victorian cast ironwork and possibly the world's largest surviving beam engines. There's a museum and a social story here too – the workers lived on site in terraced cottages built right above the massive sewage storage tank. Mesh at the windows kept the flies at bay. It must have stunk to high Heaven but my goodness they grew good tomatoes! Please bring a picnic to eat during the cruise. Depart Heathfield 7.15, Uckfield 7.35, Maresfield 7.45, Forest Row 8.10, War Memorial Bus Stop 8.20, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 8.25, Felbridge 8.30. They offer woodland walks, world famous displays of rhododendrons, azaleas and camellias, art and sculpture exhibitions and a miniature steam railway that follows a scenic route through parts of the gardens previously inaccessible to the public (not included in price). More than 100 years in the making, Exbury's glorious gardens, designed and curated by the de Rothschild family, have the power to delight and inspire in equal measure. This spectacular collection of landscaped woodland, herbaceous, contemporary, formal and wildflower gardens provide an ever-changing palette of colour that will entice you back to witness the seasons unfold. The Little Kitchen Company provides visitors with a variable menu based around quality produce and locally sourced ingredients.      Depart Heathfield 7.45, Uckfield 8.05, Maresfield 8.15, Forest Row 8.40, War Memorial Bus Stop 8.50, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 8.55, Felbridge 9.00. 8 May Thur. 2.30pm £60.00	HANDBAGGED AT YVONNE ARNAUD THEATRE, GUILDFORD. Moira Buffini's clever and fiercely funny comedy is a fly-on-the-wall look at what might have happened when Queen Elizabeth II and Margaret Thatcher came face-to-face in the privacy of the palace. Over the course of a decade did the Monarch and the Iron Lady ever find a common ground, or did their stiff upper lips reign supreme? This highly entertaining Queen's Theatre Hornchurch and Theatre Nation Partnerships production explores the intense relationship between two of history's most revered female leaders, and the legacy they each left behind. Time for lunch prior to performance. Depart Heathfield 9.30, Uckfield 9.50, Maresfield 10.00, Forest Row 10.25, War Memorial Bus Stop 10.35, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 10.40, Felbridge 10.45. 5 June Thur. 2.30pm £55.00 NEW	THE PAJAMA GAME AT YVONNE ARNAUD THEATRE, GUILDFORD. The Unmissable Broadway Musical Comedy. A union strike at a pajama factory generates plenty of 'steam heat' in this energetic 1950s retro musical comedy love story! The Pajama Game was awarded the 1955 Tony for Best Musical, and over half a century later claimed the award for Best Revival of a Musical. The hit 1957 film starring Doris Day, and the 2014 London West-End production further prove this musical is truly timeless. Conditions at the 'Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory' are anything but peaceful, as sparks fly between handsome new superintendent, Sid Sorokin, and feisty Union rep, "Babe" Williams, while the workers strike for a 7 ½ cent pay increase! The Pajama Game features energetic songs and dances and plenty of fun and splashy production numbers, including hit 50s pop standards "Hey There", "Hernando's Hideaway" and "Steam Heat". This perennial favourite is a sure-fire crowd-pleaser and a glowing example of classic American Musical Comedy. Time for lunch prior to performance.   Depart Heathfield 9.30, Uckfield 9.50, Maresfield 10.00, Forest Row 10.25, War Memorial Bus Stop 10.35, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 10.40, Felbridge 10.45.
