WE WOULD LOVE SOME MORE BOOKINGS FOR THIS FANTASTIC DAY OUT. NATIONAL HORSERACING MUSEUM AND THE NATIONAL STUD, NEWMARKET. We begin with tea/coffee on arrival before our guided introduction to this fascinating museum. The National Horseracing Museum is a 5-acre site in the heart of Newmarket. It comprises three complementary attractions; National Horseracing Museum in the Trainer's House and King's Yard Galleries, the Packard Galleries of British Sporting Art in Palace House, and a chance to meet former racehorses in the flagship home of Retraining of Racehorses. So much more than a museum! There is a fabulous restaurant and gift shop on-site. There will be free time for lunch before we drive to The National Stud where we enjoy a guided tour, some on the coach and some flat walking Visitors can expect to see mares with their young foals, yearlings and stallions all in the truly beautiful grounds of the National Stud. On your guided tour you will also hear about the history of the stud, and an overview of the work that goes into producing the future champions of the turf. There are no refreshments at The National Stud so we suggest you bring a flask and something for the journey home if you wish. Depart Heathfield 7.15, Uckfield 7.35, Maresfield 7.45, Forest Row 8.10, War Memorial Bus Stop 8.20, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 8.25, Felbridge 8.30. Home 6.45pm

SPITFIRE GIRLS AT THE DEVONSHIRE PARK THEATRE, EASTBOURNE. By Katherine Senior. INSPIRED BY REMARKABLE TRUE EVENTS. Decades after answering the call, two women separated by the war, meet again as the rain hammers down on the windows of The Spitfire pub. As we hear their story, we're transported back to a time when female pioneers defied expectations and soared through the skies. Funny and heart-warming, this is an untold story of strength, courage and loss. But above all else, hope. Spitfire Girls was developed with the support of the National Theatre's Generate programme. Time for lunch prior to performance. Depart Felbridge 10.15, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 10.20, Barclay Bank Bus Stop 10.25, Forest Row 10.30, Maresfield 10.55, Uckfield 11.05, Halland 11.15. | 30 April Wednesday £76.00 | THE GREAT STINK WITH A BLUE BADGE GUIDE. The day includes a top-notch Blue Badge Tour Guide, a Thames Cruise, the tour at Crossness plus morning coffee and a cup of tea at the end of the afternoon. Two thousand years ago the Romans enjoyed indoor plumbing but until a couple of hundred years ago Londoners were still emptying their chamber pots out of the window. In 1858 the long hot summer turned into The Great Stink with the Thames little more than an open sewer. We begin in central London tracking London's lost rivers, cruise the Thames to Greenwich and drive across the old Thames marshes to the extraordinary Cathedral of Sewage built to house the Crossness Engines. Discover some of Britain's most spectacular ornamental Victorian cast ironwork and possibly the world's largest surviving beam engines. There's a museum and a social story here too. Please bring a picnic to eat during the cruise. Depart Heathfield 7.15, Uckfield 7.35, Maresfield 7.45, Forest Row 8.10, War Memorial Bus Stop 8.20, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 8.25, Felbridge 8.30. | 6 May Tuesday £47.00 | EXBURY GARDENS, SOUTHAMPTON. The gardens were created by Lionel de Rothschild in 1919 and are still lovingly managed by the family today. They offer woodland walks, world famous displays of rhododendrons, azaleas and camellias, art and sculpture exhibitions and a miniature steam railway that follows a scenic route through parts of the gardens previously inaccessible to the public (not included in price). More than 100 years in the making, Exbury's glorious gardens, designed and curated by the de Rothschild family, have the power to delight and inspire in equal measure. This spectacular collection of landscaped woodland, herbaceous, contemporary, formal and wildflower gardens provide an ever-changing palette of colour that will entice you back to witness the seasons unfold. The Little Kitchen Company provides visitors with a variable menu based around quality produce and locally sourced ingredients. Moira Buffini's clever and fiercely funny comedy is a fly-on-the-wall look at what might have happened when Queen Elizabeth II and Margaret Thatcher came face-to-face in the privacy of the palace. Over the course of a decade did the Monarch and the Iron Lady ever find a common ground, or did their stiff upper lips reign supreme? This highly entertaining Queen's Theatre Hornchurch and Theatre Nation Partnerships production explores the intense relationship between two of history's most revered female leaders, and the legacy they each left behind. Time for lunch prior to performance. Depart Heathfield 9.30, Uckfield 9.50, Maresfield 10.00, Forest Row 10.25, War Memorial Bus Stop 10.35, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 10.40, Felbridge 10.45. | 22 May Thur 2.30pm £66.00 NEW | THE GOVERNMENT INSPECTOR AT CHICHESTER FESTIVAL THEATRE. Don't blame the mirror if your face is askew. The bureaucrats in a remote provincial town are panicking. Word has gone round that a bigwig government inspector is heading their way. And things are far from ideal: for a start, the hospital's hopeless, the post office has gone to pot, and the streets are filthy. The Mayor and the Judge are keen to brush their own indiscretions under the nearest carpet. So, when they discover the inspector is already staying at the inn, incognito, the whole town lavishes flattering attention on him. This suits 'the inspector' just fine, since in reality he's a lowly and broke government pen-pusher, nursing extravagant fantasies of fame and fortune... Gogol's brilliantly inventive 19th century satire of skulduggery, mistaken identity and human absurdity spirals into dizzying levels of comic hysteria in Phil Porter's sparkling new version. Actor and comedian Tom Rosenthal plays Khlestakov. Time for lunch prior to performance. |

| 5 June Thur. 2.30pm £55.00 | THE PAJAMA GAME AT YVONNE ARNAUD THEATRE, GUILDFORD. The Unmissable Broadway Musical Comedy. A union strike at a pajama factory generates plenty of 'steam heat' in this energetic 1950s retro musical comedy love story! The hit 1957 film starring Doris Day, and the 2014 London West-End production further prove this musical is truly timeless. Conditions at the 'Sleep-Tite Pajama Factory' are anything but peaceful, as sparks fly between handsome new superintendent, Sid Sorokin, and feisty Union rep, "Babe" Williams, while the workers strike for a 7 ½ % pay increase! The Pajama Game features energetic songs and dances and plenty of fun and splashy production numbers, including hit 50s pop standards "Hey There", "Hernando's Hideaway" and "Steam Heat". This perennial favourite is a sure-fire crowd-pleaser and a glowing example of classic American Musical Comedy. Time for lunch prior to performance. Predominantly Sir Reginald Blomfield's design of 1896, the twelve acres of tranquil gardens surrounding Godinton House are enclosed by a vast yew hedge and showcase features added by different owners over time. Terraced lawns bordered by a vast yew hedge and topiaried box have been softened over the last century by the addition of long, curvy-edged herbaceous borders and ornamental tree and shrub plantings. I will send a menu out to those who book for your choice of Ploughman's Lunch. | 27 June Friday £39.00 NEW | GOODNESTONE PARK. Goodnestone Park Gardens covers roughly fifteen acres of the Estate and includes a large variety of trees, plants and shrubs. All of the areas are open to visitors who will be able to appreciate the seasonal colours and scents, and many of the plants are available to buy in the Nursery. There are various public footpaths that lead into the wider estate including the famous Serpentine Walk. Sadly, the gardens went through a period of neglect during the Second World War when the army requisitioned Goodnestone Park. In 1955 Brook and Margaret Fitzwalter inherited the estate. Lady Fitzwalter and her head gardener John Wellard undertook the massive task of restoring and developing the garden. They were both instrumental in creating the gardens that we recognise today, considered one of the most beautiful gardens in Kent. We begin with time in Canterbury where you can get an early lunch.     Depart Heathfield 8.15, Uckfield 8.35, Maresfield 8.45, Forest Row 9.10, War Memorial Bus Stop 9.20, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 9.25, Felbridge 9.30. JG History– 1st theatre trip we ever did soon after it opened. The London production and world premiere of Starlight Express opened on 27 March 1984 and was nominated for two Olivier Awards later that year. Audiences will be immersed inside a world of speed, song and storytelling as an incredible cast of 40 whizz around and above, performing some of musical theatre's most beloved songs, including AC/DC, Make Up My Heart, Light at the End of the Tunnel and the iconic Starlight Express. As a child's train set magically comes to life and the engines race to become the fastest in the world, Rusty the steam train has little hope of winning until he is inspired by the legend of the 'Starlight Express'. With music by Andrew Lloyd Webber and lyrics by Richard Stilgoe. Possibly time for lunch prior to performance but we suggest you bring a picnic to be on the safe side.
