20 April Monday £50.00 NEW	PRIVATE GUIDED TOUR OF STATIONERS HALL, LONDON. The Stationers' Company was officially formed in 1403 as a guild for those in the book trade. This included bookbinders, booksellers and writers. As is often the case in London's history the etymology is interesting. In the medieval period, craftsmen were itinerant, moving around wherever their trade took them. Manuscript writers and illuminators however decided to stay in one place, in the area just North of St Paul's Cathedral. They set up stalls or 'stations', i.e. were stationary, and therefore became known as 'stationers'. Stationery, the items they sold, also got their name from this origin. The Stationers received their Royal Charter in 1557, the only Royal Charter given out by Queen Mary I, sometimes known as 'Bloody Mary'. Today the building is Grade I listed, with many stained glass windows and, as is always the case with livery halls, the walls are covered in paintings of masters, royals and honorary members After our tour you will have free time to get lunch and explore the area which contains many interesting places. St Paul's is opposite and nearby is Paternoster Square &amp; The Guildhall Art Gallery, Fortnum &amp; Mason in The Royal Exchange and you may like to cross the Millenium Bridge to Tate Modern.     Depart Heathfield 7.45, Uckfield 8.05, Maresfield 8.15, Forest Row 8.40, War Memorial Bus Stop 8.50, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 8.55, Felbridge 9.00. 6 May Wednesday £49.00 Including private visit to the Museum, tea/coffee and walking tour. NEW	PRIVATE VISIT TO THE EEL PIE ISLAND MUSEUM with A WALKING TOUR AND MARBLE HILL. Twickenham's bohemian past and present, told on a stroll through historic Church Street and the Embankment, overlooking Eel Pie Island. The history of Eel Pie Island tells a fascinating and varied story. From the role it played in the RnB boom of the 60s to its historical boatyards, maverick characters and pioneering spirit of inventive creativity, these fabulous stories are told in the museum, not just on its walls, but also from the first-hand experience of some of its superb volunteers. Boatyards have been a major part of Eel Pie Island's landscape for well over a century. With a cast of pioneering characters providing the backbone of resources and knowledge necessary in maintaining the Thames as a working river, the stories behind the island's boatyards have remained largely untold up until now. We then have free time in Twickenham to get lunch before making our way to Marble Hill. The last complete survivor of the elegant villas and gardens that bordered the Thames between Richmond and Hampton Court in the 18th century. Inside the house, you can discover a taste of Georgian life with freshly conserved interiors and new displays that tell the story of Henrietta Howard, Marble Hill's remarkable owner. Outside, explore over 60 acres of riverside parkland, with restored gardens, reinvigorated woods and even a nine-pin bowling alley.     Depart Heathfield 8.00, Uckfield 8.20, Maresfield 8.30, Forest Row 8.55, War Memorial Bus Stop 9.05, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 9.10, Felbridge 9.15. 21 May Thursday £60.00 NEW	PARSONAGE FARM AND WHITHURST PARK, West Sussex. We went to Parsonage Farm in 2024 and it is stunning. We are revisiting at this more colourful time of year – oh and don't miss the Giraffes! We enjoy Tea/Coffee on arrival. The garden's design is based on an C18 concept of ferme ornee – or ornamental farm – with a large lake in a parkland style setting at the front of the house and more formal gardens behind with walks and vistas stretching out into the fields and woodlands. The garden is now reaching maturity as reflected in the many 12ft yew hedges which divide it into formal and informal areas planted with carefully chosen colour themes and unusual plants. Avenues are quite a feature – some trained as hedges, pleached allees, hedges on stilts, lollipops – and some in a more natural style such as the tulip tree avenue and hundreds of metres of Holm oaks planted through new woodlands, and underplanted with mahonia, which lead up to a grand grass amphitheatre. To reflect the history of the village there is fruit planted in almost every area of the garden including many heritage and unusual varieties and a ¾ acre fruit and vegetable garden with flowers for cutting. Recent developments include the yew cloisters with a statue of balancing stones and rides cut through the woodland. Please bring a packed lunch to eat on

	the coach. Then to Whithurst Park 10 mins up the road for about 14.00. Tea and cake available. The Walled Garden. The final layout divides the garden into four quarters, with a central pond and fountain, and includes a large Hartley Botanic greenhouse, beautifully kitted out potting sheds and an ingenious automated watering system. The beds at the heart of the two northern quadrants contain Jerusalem artichokes underplanted with strawberries — a nice touch — with quinces and strawberries for the southern ones. Crops are rotated through the four main growing beds and the walls are covered with fan-trained stone fruits. There are also a separate rose garden, parterre and cutting flower bed near the house.    Parsonage Farm    Whithurst Park   Depart Heathfield 8.30, Uckfield 8.50, Maresfield 9.00, Forest Row 9.25, War Memorial Bus Stop 9.35, Lingfield Road Bus Stop 9.40, Felbridge 9.45. Allegra is full of life, joy and an irresistible urge to sing. She bursts into song at home, in the street, and even in shops and restaurants. Sometimes the music plays only in her imagination, but often it spills into real and disruptive performances that create chaos in her quiet village and amuse, confuse or exasperate everyone she meets.
