Travel Insurance

JG Theatre Club acts as an introducer to Everywhen. Everywhen acts as an introducer to David Oliver Associates for travel insurance policies.

This means that JG Theatre Club does not provide advice on travel insurance and is introducing you to Everywhen, who in turn provides access to David Oliver Associates to obtain a quotation and arrange cover.

Important Information About Travel Insurance
We believe that travel insurance is an important consideration when planning your holiday. You should consider the potential consequences of not having appropriate cover in place, including the financial impact of cancelling your trip or requiring medical treatment whilst travelling.

Taking out a travel insurance policy can provide reassurance that, should something unexpected happen before or during your holiday, you may have access to assistance and the ability to make a claim, subject to the policy terms and conditions.

We are not providing advice or a recommendation. We are simply introducing you to a facility where you can obtain a quotation and purchase travel insurance if you wish. You are free to arrange travel insurance through any provider of your choice.

The below provides a summary of the key features and exclusions of the policy. Further details of what is and isn't covered can be found in the Insurance Product Information Document and policy wording available via the link below.
